December 19, 1936.

Mono Road and Macville were quite alive in the early days of the "Sons" work in Peel. Brampton was also quite definitely awake also. The late Canon Walsh, then ministering in that town, was one of the Grand Division officers of the Province.

Wishing you and yours the very best Xmas season and the most successful New Year.

Very Sincerely Yours,

(Sgd) "A Philip Brace"

From COMMEMORATIVE BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF THE COUNTY OF YORK, ONTARIO. Toronto, 1907.

JAMES SHAW, a well-known resident of Toronto, whose home is at No. 20 Webster avenue, is a native of ~~Ireland~~ Ireland, born in County Sligo, in 1820, son of Allan and Margaret (Brett) Shaw.

Allan Shaw and his wife were born in the same county, he in 1776 and she in 1780. They came to Canada in 1829, and in September of that year located in Toronto. Before long they removed to what is now County Peel, and settled on a bush farm of 200 acres in the Gore of Toronto. They cleared the land and made their home there until they died, both passing away in 1860. Mr. Shaw was a Reformer. . . both members of the Methodist Church. . . James Shaw was eight years old when his father settled in the Gore of Toronto, and he grew up on the farm there. On reaching the proper age to begin life for himself he took half of his father's land, and cultivated his 100 acres until 1871, when he removed to Toronto. . . .

Dear George

It is with the greatest pleasure I have to inform you of my arrival here in this part of the World and how fortune has favoured me since I came here, - I left Newyork on the 3rd of November last and landed here for the 26th of the same month in perfect health. I brought some dry goods along with me which will help to pay all my expences In coming, and support me the whole winter - I thought to have commenced the Brewing business at Hewhaven about 96 miles from Newyork, as I got very great encouragement from the people in Newyork, but when I came seriously to Consider of it I thought it was better to procure an Estate for ever from his Majesty King George as I knew there was a great many Casualties attending the Brewing business - therefore I came on here determin'd if possible to secure an independence for you and I in this part of the Globe, and have now the satisfaction to inform you that I am fully posses'd of an Estate for ever, consisting of 400 acres of as good Land as I think I have ever seen and had the Kings Deeds with the great seal of the province annexed to it, now safely lying in my Trunk for the said Lands - 200 acres of which I purchased and 200 acres I got from the King, which every British subject will get that will bring a good Character with him and take the oath of Allegiance here, the fees on on which is about 40 Dollars - my 400 acres lies all together within 10 Irish miles of this Town, which is the Capital of this province, and altho the Country is settled 60 miles back from here, I have been so fortunate as to get my Land so near the Capital as I tell you, Its the only time that providence ever seemed Semed to favour me, the 400 acres stands me in about 110 Dollars, and I would not take 1000 Dollars now for it, as its one of the first Situations in this whole province, it would take up too much paper to describe to you how I came by this Situation, but you may depend it required a good deal of cleavernefs, It lies in the Township of Etobicoke, and is bounded on one side by the river Etobicoke, a river that abounds with fish of almost every description, particularly Salmon, and lies about 5 miles from Lake Ontario, a Lake where there are several Vefsels trading on. You have no Idea of this Country at all, its the finest Country I have ever seen, there is no man need be poor here if its not his own fault, as there is a sporting price here for produce of the Land, & no rent or taxes to pay only about one dollar a year for 200 acres of Land, I am Striving to work out 200 acres more but I fear it will be rather difficult to get it - there is a Tract of Land lies at the rere of mine which is not purchased from the Indians, but will about the time you arrive, and then I will have the businefs settled with my friends here, so that you and Thomas may have your Land along side of mine, and then we will have a Large Estate between us, when all is together, the Land is taking up here as fast as they can survey it and rising very fast in its value, there is so many people coming over here from the States to purchase land. This Land as well as the Climate is far Superior to the United States, the Weather is not so much on the extreme, as in Newyork, its being cooler in Summer; and more moderate in Winter - the Land is Worked here with less than half the Labour it is at home, the only hardship here is in chopping down the trees, but when an Acre is once clear, its not to clear again, and the first crop will pay all the expenses of crearing (?) and fencing, and your ashes will pay for seed and expence of sowing - Dear George let nothing prevent you from coming here, for this is the only place in this World where you can live happy, and leave your Children independent after you, if you can bring some money with you so much the (better), as you can make the stronger begining is married to his niece - I mean to have a house built and a good crop in the ground again, you and Sally and Thos. will like here, as I shall do all I can to make the place comfortable to receive you, as I promised in my letter from Waterford. Remember I tell you again to let nothing prevent you from coming here, for if you stay in poor Ireland you can never come to any thing, let no man living prevent you x (page 4) x you from coming here, you need not mind bringing more clothes than you want, as clothing can be got here cheap as at home. Remember me to Sally and am Dear George your loving brother.

Joseph Shaw

P.S. I never rec^d. a scrole from you since I came here which surprised me -----

P.S. As I had not room enough to mention every particular in this, I write a Letter to Thos. & my Father when things are mentioned more particularly _____

N.B. I send ~~an~~closed a short Description in print, of this Town, and some of the Lakes in this Country _____ farewell

Samuel Shaw.

To live for eighty years on the farm where he was born was the unusual experience of Samuel Shaw, a well-known farmer of Toronto Gore, who passed peacefully away on Friday of last week. Mr. Shaw was born on lot 14, con. 8, Toronto Gore and spent his long and useful life there honored and esteemed by a host of neighbors and friends. His father had a crown deed of the farm, and there the son grew to manhood, was married and brought up a family of five sons and one daughter. The latter is Mrs. T. Brown, whose husband was killed about a year ago and the sons are Messrs. Robert and George Shaw, of the Gore, James and Andrew, of Calgary and Wm. who resides near Winnipeg. Mr. Shaw was a member of the Methodist Church and in politics was a Conservative. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Philip Jones of Mono Road having charge of the services. A large number of old friends of the deceased attended the funeral.

Obituary.

Robert Shaw

Death came suddenly on Monday morning (October 8th) to a highly respected citizen of Tor. Gore, when Robt. Shaw passed away without warning. He was the son of the late Samuel Shaw, one of the early settlers of the Gore, and was born 66 years ago on lot 14, 8th line, removing to the adjacent farm as a young man, where he ended his days. He was a life long member of the Conservative party, and a member of Salem Methodist Church. His widow, formerly Abigail Braidner, survives, also one son, Samuel, on the homestead.

Interview with Mr. James Shaw.

11 Elmgrove Ave.,

Toronto, Ont.

My father, William E. Shaw came to this country about 82 years ago. He came from Lincolnshire, England, and on the same boat was Sarah Mason, a girl from the same village in Lincolnshire, who afterwards became his wife. This was, I think, in 1847. He first located in York, as Toronto was then called. Then he went up into Blenheim Twp. in Oxford Co. Here he was engaged in taking out railway ties for the Grand Trunk. After a few years he returned to York, and helped to drive the piles for the first bridge over the Don River. Then he moved to Whitby, returning to York for a time before settling in Peel. He settled right on the corner of the Vaughan line and Brampton side-road, working at first for George Bland. After four years he rented a farm on the 7th line, and Brampton side-road, lot 6, Con. 8, M.E., Toronto Gore. He lived there for ten years, then he rented another farm up in Albion, lot 4, Con. 3, and was there for ten years. Then he bought a farm in Huron County, and died there in two years. Father was born in 1801 and died in 1888. My mother died in Toronto in 1900, age 93, less one week. My father is buried in Ebenezer Church cemetery.

Children of William E. and Sarah Mason Shaw:

James Shaw. - I was born in Oxford Co., but lived much of my life in Peel. I went to school at the Toronto Gore school, and at Woodhill. I could only for three months in the winter, because I had to start to work for the farmers in the neighbourhood when I was just a youngster. I didn't get anything but my food for this either. I can remember that before I was big enough to drive the horses, I used to sit ~~off~~ the seat of the binder ~~thru~~ and throw off the sheaves. I am a bachelor, and have lived in Toronto for the last 30 years. The Sons of England is the only fraternal order I belong to. I am United Church, and my father was Methodist.

W.E. Shaw - left Peel at an early age, though he worked there for a time. Lives in Toronto.

George Shaw - lives in Toronto, works in the National Cash Register Co.

John R. Shaw, in Toronto, with the Gutta-Percha Rubber Co.

My eldest brother died when he was sixteen, my living sisters are Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Clifford, of Toronto, and Mrs. Tewmuth, of Manitoba.

Obituary

Mrs. William Shaw

Word was received yesterday of the death in Toronto, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. Cox, Symington Ave., Toronto, of Mrs. William Shaw, formerly Miss Sarah Mason. Deceased was a native of Lincolnshire, coming to Canada when a young woman and residing both in Toronto Gore, where the members of the family attended Ebenezer School, and also for a time in Brampton. Her husband died 41 years ago, and she leaves four sons, James, Edmund, George and John, all of Toronto, and five daughters, Mrs. John Belmont, Man.; Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. C. Clifford, all of Toronto. A daughter, Mrs. Robert Loughheed, Tullamore, passed away only a week ago. Mrs. Shaw's twin brother, Jabez Shaw, is enjoying good health; another brother, George, and two sisters, Mrs. Williams and Fiddell, all of Toronto, also survive. Mrs. Shaw and her brother are believed to have been the oldest living twins in Canada.

WM. J. GRAHAM PASSES AWAY IN 89th YEAR

Came Here in 1869 as Inland Revenue Collector

DEATH SUDDEN

Veteran of Fenian Raids; Was Widely Known

One of Owen Sound's oldest and best known citizens, William Johnstone Graham, passed away on Thursday afternoon in his 89th year....He had been a resident of Owen Sound since 1869, when he came here from Toronto to take over the position of inland revenue collector. He had been prominent in the life of Brooke and of Sarawak Township and was well and favorably known throughout the entire district.

Deceased was born at Grahamsville, near Brampton, in 1844, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graham, and was educated at Brampton. In 1867 he was united in marriage to Mary Louisa Watt, of Dixie, Ont., who predeceased him six years ago. Surviving to mourn his loss are two sons, W. A. D. Graham of this city and H. M. Graham of Toronto, and two daughters, Mr. L. Weelands, who lived with her father here, and Mrs. H. Blade of Ottawa. The late Mr. Graham also leaves one brother, Robert H. Graham of Toronto, and two sisters, Miss Maria Graham and Miss Margaret Graham, both of Toronto. There also survive nine grandchildren, one of whom is Teddy Graham, well known pro hockey player, and four great grandchildren.

When Mr. Graham came here in 1869 from Toronto to take over the duties of inland revenue collector here he was forced to travel by way of Collingwood. He took the railway to Collingwood and then boarded the str. Frances Smith for this port. Mr. Graham ably filled the post of collector of inland revenue until he was superannuated about eighteen years ago.

The late Mr. Graham was a prominent Mason, being a member of St. George's Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of this city. He was a past master and only a few weeks ago had attended a banquet held in his honor, to mark the 60th anniversary of his becoming a Mason.

For many years Mr. Graham served on the Brooke school board, until Brooke was annexed to Owen Sound. Deceased had also been reeve of Carawak for several years.

The late Mr. Graham was a Fenian Raid veteran, having served as a lieutenant with the Grahamsville Battalion during the excitement in 1866. He was serving under his uncle, Col. Thomas Graham, and the battalion was stationed on the Niagara frontier.

In religion the late Mr. Graham was an Anglican and Rev. J. L. Geoghegan of St. Thomas' Anglican Church

JOHN SHAW GRAHAM, 88, Fenian Raid veteran, died yesterday ^{19th August, 1930,} at the home of his niece, Mrs. William Mallory, 182 Brock avenue. The greater part of his life was spent in Dixie, where he was a member of St. John's Anglican Church. He served in the raid in the Grahamsville
Infantry and was a member of the veterans of '66 association. Surviving are two brothers, R. H. Graham, Toronto, a former alderman, and W. J. Graham, of Owen Sound, and two sisters, Misses Maria and Margaret of Toronto.

Interview with Sir Henry Pellatt

Military

1. Sir Henry has not the nominal Roll of the Contingent, which he took over to England for the coronation of Edward VII. It can be obtained, together with a list of the Canadians he commanded at the Diamond Jubilee and the coronation of George V by writing to The Military Department, Ottawa.
2. Sir Henry made the following quotation:
"He who looks back, dies of remorse".
3. Sir Henry has 200 large prints of military ceremonies. Mr. Bull said he would consult Dr. Currelly and Dr. Locke as to the best means of preserving them.
4. Colonel Percy Mason of 6 South Drive will be able to identify the various prints.
5. On the occasion of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, four men from every regiment in Canada were included in the Canadian Contingent. In 1910, however, only the Queen's Own Rifles were represented.

Sergeant Graham Laid Away in His Last Resting Place.

Thomas Graham, aged 66, an old and respected servant of the corporation, passed away to his long rest, at his residence, 56 Fuller street, on Aug. 11. The funeral took place to Lambton Mills on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The deceased was born in Grahamsville, Ont. He worked for the corporation for fifteen years, and during the greater part of that period under the park commissioner in HighPark, where the "sergeant's" tall, erect figure, in addition to a cheerful disposition, was a well-known landmark to the many frequenters of the park. Deceased, who was a brother of ex-Controller H. H. Graham, leaves a widow, eight children, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Regarding Thomas Shaw, Story is from Miss Maria Graham, 30 Wanless Ave., Toronto, Ontario.

Thomas Shaw, brother of the Maria Shaw who married Andrew Graham, was apprentice as a youth to William Lyon McKenzie in York. He was fond of entertainments and frequently incurred the ire of his master by staying out in the evening later than the hours thought proper for apprentices. His final transgression occurred several years before the rebellion when he was a strapping lad still in his teens. He came home late from some merry-making and McKenzie proceeded to chastise him as soon as he got in the door, but the apprentice was too big to accept this treatment and turned the tables on his master rather badly. McKenzie received quite a flogging. In the midst of the row Mrs. McKenzie, alarmed by the noise, came down the stairs in her nightgown, and seeing what was going on, she cried out: "Tam, Tam, Binna kill Lyon." McKenzie's fellow editors referred in glee to this passage-at-arms as the fight between the Grampus and the Lyon. That McKenzie harbored no grudge against young Shaw for this episode is shown by the sequel. During the rebellion the former apprentice was a member of the Militia forces. He had the misfortune to fall into the hands of the rebels, before the fray at Montgomery's tavern. McKenzie recognized him and instead of keeping him in captivity he bound a ribbon or handkerchief around his arm and set him free.

Regarding Andrew Graham from Miss Maria Graham.
30 Wanless Ave., Toronto.

During the rebellion of '37 Andrew Graham and his company of militia captured a number of rebels and brought them to his house where he locked them up. Feeling against the rebels was running very high in the Loyalist neighborhood and there was considerable talk of hanging any prisoners taken. Maria Shaw, the wife of Andrew Graham, was afraid the men in the community were really going to carry out their threats of hanging prisoners and she contrived to leave a door unfastened or a window open and prisoners escaped before their fate had been decided on.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Brampton, Jan. 12.—(Special).—Today marked the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaw, and the event was observed with a family reunion at the homestead at Malton, when the couple were made the recipients of two chesterfield chairs from their children and a couch from their grandchildren. The groom, who is 78 years of age, is a native of Toronto Gore, and for many years farmed the homestead which has been in the family possession for more than 100 years. Mrs. Shaw was born in Albion Township, and before her marriage was Martha Piercey. Relatives and friends from many parts of York, Halton and Peel Counties attended the reception given in honor of the celebrants.

OFFICE OF SURVEYOR GENERAL

Toronto, 17th June, 1933.

Dear Mr. Bull:-

In reply to your letter regarding Joseph Shaw, the records shew that this party, being a brewer in the Town of York, received a patent of 200 acres of land, being Lot "C" on the north side of the River Etobicoke, in a Range in the 2nd. Concession, north of Dundas Street, in the Township of Toronto, together with all the woods and waters thereon, reserving gold, silver and white pine trees. The date of the patent was 10th February, 1807 and seems to be a free grant.

On said patent there is a notation of an allotment or appropriation of 28 and 4/7 acres, to be made in Block 16, west of the Military Reserve, in the Township of Etobicoke. This Lot "C" is now in the Township of Toronto. The sale seems to have been a free grant.

This is all the information I can find here, in this matter.

Mr. James G. Shaw, of Chingua-cousy, is one of those who has a birthday only once in four years. Although Mr. Shaw does not have an opportunity to celebrate as often as many other people, the event is not allowed to pass unnoticed. His friends see to that, for something like two hundred relatives and friends gathered at the Shaw home on Monday, Feb. 29th, and made merry. The festivities in the afternoon partook more of the nature of a family gathering and in the evening the neighbors, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are justly popular, gathered in large numbers to offer their felicitations. They did not come empty-handed either, for they presented Mr. Shaw with a gold watch and chain and Mrs. Shaw with a stainless steel carving set. Needless to say that the evening was spent in a merry manner. The quadrennial celebration of Mr. Shaw's birthday has become an outstanding event in the neighborhood.—Enterprise.

Obituary.

THE LATE MRS. SHAW

In the death of Mrs. William Shaw, of Mono Road, on Thursday (May 1st) this district lost one of its oldest and most respected residents. Mrs. Shaw whose maiden name was Mary Ann Morrison, was a daughter of the late Robert Morrison, and was born in Toronto Gore Township 85 years ago. Following her marriage she came to lot 3, Con. 3, Albion, where she resided until eighteen years ago, when her husband died. Since then she has resided at Mono Road. She was a member of St. Mary's Anglican Church at Tullamore, but of late years had attended the Methodist Church at Mono Road, close to her home.

Mr. Bull.

Dear Sir:

The four marked with x are Brothers and sons of the late William and Jane Shaw, they came from Ireland about a hundred years ago, and settled near Cooksville, Toronto Township, later came to Albion with their family, took up land Con. 2, lot 2, and Con. 3, lot 3, and is still owned by their Grandsons Charlie and Robert Shaw.

Hope this information will be some benefit to you it is the best I can give.

Yours Truly,

Robert Shaw.

To Sir John Colborne, Lt. Govr.

In Council

The Petition of Joseph Tomkinson, Joseph Price,
James Brown, James Reid, Henry Bell, Joseph Bell,
Alexander Cullen, John Woodill, Robert Woodill,
George Ward, John Dale, and George Shaw,-

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioners are Emigrants from Great Britain and Ireland, and, with the exception of the Petitioners Joseph Price and George Shaw, are settled on the Lots in the 7th Con. of the Southern and Northern Divisions of the Gore of Toronto mentioned in the subjoined Schedule and purchased at a Government Sale by auction in the year 1820.

That your Petitioners, with the exception above mentioned, settled in said Gore shortly after the said Sale, and the whole of Your Petitioners have made Improvements, the amount of which, with other Particulars, will be seen in the said Schedule.

That at the period of the Sale Your Petitioners have been but a short time in this Prov., and were in low circumstances.

That they have been unable to comply with the Terms of the Sale, their means having been constantly reduced by their necessary expenditures in improving the lands, and in the maintenance and support of their families.

That Your Petitioners have greatly improved the Roads in said Settlement; and the Improvements they have made on the said Lands have considerably enhanced the value of the other Lands in the said Gore.--

That Your Petitioners, in conjunction with other Settlers in the Neighbourhood, have lately undertaken to cut out, and make, a Road from lot 2 in the 7th con. of the Gore (Southern Division) to Mr. Scarlett's Mills on the Humber, which will shorten the distance from the Gore to York.

That it being reported the Lands whereon your Petitioners are settled, and have improved, as abovementioned, are, together with other Lands in the Gore, about to be resold, Your Petitioners humbly Pray that Your Exo'y will be pleased to take their situation into Consideration, and Grant them such relief in the premises as to Your Exo'y may appear meet.

MRS. MARGARET SHAW HONORED ON 79th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Margaret Shaw, of Bolton, celebrated her 79th birthday on September 8th and the occasion was marked by a pleasant gathering at the home of her son, Reginald Shaw, Brampton. About forty-five guests sat down to a dainty banquet at 7 o'clock. The rooms were artistically decorated with summer flowers, and on the centre of the table was a birthday cake, bearing seventy-nine candles. The cake was made by Mrs. W. H. Shaw. A pleasant surprise for Mrs. Shaw came when her five sons presented her with a beautiful radio set and the following address:

Our Mother,—

Words cannot express what we would like to say on this, your 79th birthday. When now in manhood we well know how many patient hours you must have watched over us when we were helpless children and also know that now when we are fighting life's battle you still walk beside us sweet and serious and clad in the garments of power. A mother's love for her children is the most precious gift in this transitory world and especially when so rendered by you. May you believe that our love for you is as far as is humanly possible just as great.

"Oh wondrous power how little understood,

Entrusted to the mother's mind alone,

To fashion genius, form the soul of good,

Inspire a West, or train a Washington.

May this small gift from your boys be taken as a token of our love and our dearest wish is that you may live for many years to come.

—R. R. Shaw, W. H. Shaw, James G. Shaw, T. C. Shaw and George I. Shaw.

OBITUARY

HORNBY: The death of George H. Hornby, a well known and deeply respected resident of Malton district, occurred on Friday last at the home of his son-in-law, Edward L. Scarlett, third line east, Toronto township. Mr. Hornby was in his 74th year and had patiently suffered a lengthy and painful illness. He passed away at his old home where he had farmed for many years. His wife, who was Miss Louisa Shaw before her marriage, predeceased him about thirty years ago. Two daughters also predeceased him, Gladys Irene in 1925 and Lottie Isabel (Mrs. E. L. Scarlett) in 1933. Surviving are two grandchildren, Clea and Lorraine Scarlett; two sisters, Mrs. Matthew Leuty, third line, Malton, and Mrs. Frank Jackson, Brampton, and one brother, Arthur Hornby, Brampton. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon with interment in Bethany cemetery.

AGED ORANGEVILLE COUPLE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. SHAW CALEDON BORN

Perfect Harmony in Home of Couple Fifty Years Wed—Recipe for Happy Married Life Mutual Consideration and Thoughtfulness

"With the numerous divorces," he continued, "I do not see how we ever can expect to have a happy world." He is an active member of St. Mark's Church and has missed very few services in fifty years. Active in fraternal orders, he is a member of the Foresters and Chosen Friends.

Mrs. Shaw was a daughter of Wm. Fiddes, also an early settler of Caledon township. Her maiden name was May Jane Fides. As a child she moved to Orangeville with her parents, where she received her education. Later her family moved to Mono Township. She is an active member of St. Mark's Women's Auxiliary and does not agree that the amount of cosmetics that the modern girl uses is quite seemly.

"I have never used any in my life, nor has any of my family," she said. "Of course," she continued, "it is not my business to criticize the girls of today, because I am sure they know better than I what they are doing."

Mrs. Shaw has a reputation for good cooking, and she still believes that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach." She recalls vividly when Caledon township animals lurked in the woods and when the first coal-oil lamp was introduced into her home. With a chuckle she remembers how frightened everyone used to be of this "luxury."

"The clothes girls are wearing today are much more sensible than the hoop-skirts I wore in my youth," she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw have three daughters and their grandchildren. The daughters are: Mrs. R. Morrow, Orangeville; Mrs. W. Crowe, Minden, and Miss R. Shaw, at home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Shaw, residents of Orangeville, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Monday. Felicitations were received from their family and many friends all through the day.

The venerable couple were married in St. Mark's Church in 1888 by the late Canon Henderson and have lived their entire married life in Orangeville. Mr. Shaw was born in Caledon township in 1865, the son of Irish parents, who were early settlers in that district. When eighteen years of age, he moved to Orangeville and engaged in business with his brother-in-law for eight years. Following this he entered the machinery business with his brother and later he moved to Chicago and then to Detroit. On returning to Orangeville from Detroit he started a grocery store. Co-incidental with his wedding anniversary on Aug. 1 are the facts that the anniversary of his birth and his first day in business there were the same day. Known locally to be very witty, he is very fond of practical jokes. He holds the record for the first man to wear a straw hat in the spring, appearing with his in December. In his store he carries a complete line of practical jokes, and is never too busy to try one on any unsuspecting customer.

Mr. Shaw recalls the time when the streets of Orangeville were lighted by wax candles and the sidewalks were of wooden planks. He attributes his good health to a happy home.

"A good wife has more to do with a man's life than any one. Mrs. Shaw and I have never had a bad word in our fifty years of married life," he said.
